-- Presented by 'The Runics Bookstore'

Bookie Time !!

Books have been scientifically proven to improve vocabulary, grades, imagination, and even just your happiness. Unfortunately, not everybody enjoys it, which can be quite devastating to your future - you can't escape reading! But making reading a hobby that you enjoy will make anything better. You can go anywhere with a book in hand, so keep reading if you want to enjoy reading. Just Go and grab a book today !!! ^_^

Steps for an amazing Book adventure

Pick the right book

What is your favorite genre? Reading what you like is often the key to liking reading. If you don't like chocolate cake, it doesn't mean you don't like all types of cake. It's the same with reading. A lot of times, a movie is based on a book and because the screen version can only be so long, by reading the book, you get more details!

Find an amazing place and relax

Take a couple of deep breaths before reading and have something hot to drink near you. Relaxing is a great way to enjoy lots of things.

Connect with the story

Ask yourself what each character enjoys doing the most. Try connecting it to you by comparing your hobbies, talents, likes, and dislikes. Also, think if you would change the character at all.

Make all reading enjoyable !!

If you only read because you have to, change that. Don't pick a super boring book about the subject. Go to the library and try historical fiction based on the subject! It can be easier to digest and enjoy, but still be educational! When you're looking for books on a certain subject, ask the librarian for help.
